We show that any weighted geometric mean of Chebyshev polynomials is bounded from above by another Chebyshev polynomial. We also study a related homogeneous cyclic inequality. Specifically, we study particular cases to explores the bounds of the inequality, as well as variable fractional powers to better understand the extent of the homogeneous cyclic inequality.